Forecast for Thursday 13 May 2021

Weather: Rather cloudy overnight and at first in the morning with the odd patch of drizzle and hill fog but some clear spells west of the Cairngorms. Tending to brighten up as cloud lifts but one or two showers may develop in the west in the afternoon, wintry above 1200m. Low cloud likely to return from the northeast late afternoon and evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 20% at first rising to 80% from mid morning. Falling 30% in the evening, lower still over the Northern Cairngorms.

Visibility: Mostly good away from the cloud which will be around 500-800m until mid morning and returning from mid evening, perhaps lower in the far north, but generally above the tops in the middle of the day.
